The Marvelous Wonderettes (G)

Pays homage to the high school Songleader squads of the 1950s. When called upon to perform at their senior prom as a last minute replacement, Springfield High Songleaders, Betty Jean, Cindy Lou, Missy and Suzy, rally together to entertain their classmates in four-part harmony. Take a stroll down memory lane!

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers (PG)

Set in the backwoods of Oregon in the 1850s, where every man still fends for himself, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers is a delightful story about creating civilization in the wilderness. When Milly married handsome backwoodsman, Adam, she had no idea she would be responsible for taking care of his six younger brothers as well, but quickly shows them how they can court and win beautiful mates of their own.

Mamma Mia (PG)

On a small Greek island, Sophie dreams of a perfect wedding — one which includes her father giving her away. The problem? Sophie doesn't know who he is! Sneaking a peek in her mother's old diaries, she discovers three possible fathers: Sam, Bill, and Harry. She secretly invites all three to the wedding. Told through the legendary music of ABBA, Mamma Mia! has become a worldwide sensation that has audiences everywhere dancing.

Joseph & the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (G)

Joseph — the favorite son of Jacob — is blessed with vivid dreams that foretell the future. Sold into slavery by his jealous brothers, Joseph endures a series of adventures which challenge him to his core. A truly timeless Old Testament tale, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is set to a multitude of musical genres, spanning from country-western and calypso to bubble-gum pop and rock and roll.

The Drowsy Chaperone (PG)

When wealthy widow Mrs. Tottenham hosts the wedding of the year, she gets a lot more than a write-up in the society pages: a glittering starlet of Feldzieg's Follies, gangsters disguised as pastry chefs, a Latin lover more vain than virile, a drunken diva chaperone, and a couple mistaken identities. Such are the antics of The Drowsy Chaperone, a heartfelt parody of the 1920s musical comedy features a chirpy, jazz age score and a funny, clever script.

And Don't Miss the BSP's Benefit Revue & Hits From the 50's, 60's & 70's!
